Police and Community Converge at ORR Field

By Jean Perry

What is known as "National Night Out" all across the country is becoming a pretty big deal. And it is always a big deal in the Tri-Town because, as a community of not just one but three police, fire, and emergency response management departments, a plethora of patrol cars, ladder trucks, ambulances, cool four-by-four vehicles, and an army of emergency responders, demonstrating them is immense.

The front lawn of Old Rochester Regional on Tuesday night, August 1, was vastly lined with every kind of emergency vehicle with beeps and bleeps and blinking lights of all volumes and patterns – and even more children to delight in them.

The National Night Out began over 30 years ago as an annual community-building campaign to help foster community-police partnerships and a friendly camaraderie amongst law enforcement personnel and community members.

Literally millions of Americans across the country in thousands of communities nationwide host a local National Night Out, and the Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester communities have been doing it for at least the last four years, said Rochester Police Sergeant Robert Small.

Every year, the event seems to grow by at least one other vehicle, or by one additional booth promoting community safety.

This year, Rochester Police Officer Robert Nordahl helped prepare a booth on child seat safety, which included demonstrations and installation assistance.

The Healthy Tri-Town Coalition also set up a table to keep the public aware of Lyme disease, West Nile virus, and displayed some new advances in safety such as the medical storage safe box for medications in the home.

On the far west end of the lawn, Mattapoisett Firefighter Joseph Tripp was helping kids use the fire hose

On the Cover: Fire Away! – Felix Chaput, age one-and-a-half, of Rochester, reaches in for a splash as Mattapoisett Firefighter Joseph Tripp helps Charlie Connelly, 8, of Mattapoisett aim the fire hose just right to knock off the target during the Tri-Town's 'National Night Out' on the afternoon of Tuesday, August 1. to hit a target, pausing to help the kiddos straighten their nifty new plastic firefighter hats, given out courtesy of the local fire departments.

The sounds of beep beep and blip blip, along with swirling lights of blue and red made for some cool clamor as the kids were allowed to climb into the vehicles and experience some vivid make-believe with all the bells and whistles at their fingertips.

Sergeant Small sees the importance of hosting such an event year after year. It's all about creating a space where the community and law enforcers – as well as fire and EMT workers – can meet and just enjoy interacting in a casual setting.

"It's definitely an opportunity for the community to get to speak to us without any urgency," said Small, which is usually the premise of a conversation with police. "It's a chance to come out and meet us in a quiet environment where all the equipment is out to look at. We get to say 'Hi' to people in a more neutral environment," Small said.

It's great for the people of the community to get to know the ones who respond to their calls for help, Small said, and it's equally beneficial for the police officers, he added.

"Everybody's in a good mood," said Small, "especially when it's good weather like this. It's just really easy." He added, "It's an easy, friendly environment to get to know each other."

Massachusetts and Dartmouth before her family relocated to Rochester just before her freshman year at ORR.

What she'd change as the President of Tri-Town: I don't know if I'd change anything. I can tell you something I think is great, I like how a lot of the sports are together.

I think it's so much better than from when I was younger, when it was all separate. The kids get to meet all the kids from different towns, and when they get to the junior high and high school, they know each other. So I guess I'd say I'd strengthen that even more.

Favorite place: Well, the place I am the most is here (Old Rochester football field), especially this time of year. But I think my favorite spot is the lighthouse, the Ned's Point area, it's beautiful.

Ever seen a celebrity? Well, I work at Turk's (Seafood in Mattapoisett), so you see people. I've seen Jason Varitek, and – oh goodness, I can't remember his name ... (James Spader?) ... Yes! James Spader. He comes in once and awhile and gets takeout. It's nice to see him, but we want to make sure they're treated like regular people.

Marissa Johnson isn't a movie star, but she'd have fit in just fine with the cast of the summer blockbuster Wonder Woman.

As the president of the Old Rochester Youth Football League (and mother of four), she is the leader of a large group of volunteers working together to keep Tri-Town's young players and cheerleaders organized and engaged.

"I've been heavily involved for eight years, but this is actually going to be my first year in charge," said Johnson, who takes over for Tom Flynn. "It was kind of

More like a lot of everything – running a youth sports league is a daunting undertaking, requiring hundreds of hours over the course of a single season.

But with her husband Dayne as vice president, and her three youngest kids all taking part in the league (oldest son Drew plays football for Old Rochester Regional), it's definitely a Johnson family affair.

"So yeah, I'm busy, but I'm definitely used to it," she said. She's at the Old Rochester Regional football field just about every day from now through November, filling whatever role needs to be filled on that day.

As one of the few female presidents of a youth sports league in the area, Johnson doesn't worry much about fitting in.

"It is obviously a very male sport, but everyone's been so great," she said. "I had a great relationship with parents and coaches before, and I think they're used to asking me questions, so I haven't had any issues at all."

And she also knows that husband Dayne, a former player at Old Rochester Regional who is an assistant coach there, has her back.

"I know a lot about football, but it's nice to have your husband as a go-to for any kind of technical questions," she said.

It was through Dayne that she came to love the sport. She said she grew up around it, but it wasn't until she started dating her husband that she really fell for football (and him).

The athletic culture in Tri-Town has always been good, and then-Marissa Rand was a standout for the Old Rochester soccer and basketball teams.

She was a member of the 1998 state championship team that was recently inducted into the Hall of Fame – fittingly she missed the ceremony because she was attending her daughter's basketball tournament.

There are always tournaments to attend, logistics to grapple with, and problems to solve.

"My husband and I are completely straight out, especially now. With Pop Warner football, you have so many regulations, ages, weights, rules, making sure everyone's safe," she said. "That's my nervousness going into the season, making sure it all runs smoothly as it can. But I have a huge group of parents that have already helped out, stepped up a lot. It's really a great league, I'm happy to be part of it."

Between now and the end of the season, there will be countless headaches, large and small, for Johnson to deal with, and she admits that it can be difficult at times. But it's all worth it.

"For me, it's when we get to the championship games, and the kids are celebrating winning that trophy, that's what really makes it great," she said. "Seeing that for the kids, knowing they'll all remember it. I love that."

Breaking News: Summer Is Over

This Mattapoisett Life

By Marilou Newell

By the time you read this, we'll all be lamenting the quick arrival of August. But before you pull out your wool sweaters, let me take you back to July.

Somewhere around July 10th as I made my way around a low-priced retail store, I was confronted by an oversized cardboard display. At first, I thought maybe I had fallen into a fugue-like state where I was dreaming about the store and if I just blinked twice I'd be back in bed. But no, blinking didn't clear my vision.

There before me stood a large square box covered in images of crayons playfully dancing across a field of white and inside the box were hundreds of cartons of Crayola crayons. Crayons!!! This display was the precursor of what I knew would be on sale the following week – three-ring binders and lined paper. School supplies on parade because summer was over.

Okay, not literally, but certainly from the viewpoint of those who make a living marketing must-have items to a species presently covered in sunscreen. While we were just beginning to enjoy some sun and firing up grills, retailers were preparing to remind you that seasonal shifts are around the corner so hurry and stock up on crayons before they are all gone! Give me a break.

Here we go...

When I was a kid, summer lasted from the moment school closed until the moment it reopened. Oh sure, Ma received her advance copy of Sears and Roebuck's winter catalog chockablock full of winter clothing. But no one was looking at it, including Ma.

We were too busy waiting for the ice cream man, eating watermelon, which by the way, was only available for a few weeks in the summer, and of course, riding bikes, playing jump rope, and going to the beach.

Ma was enjoying the slight freedom from domestic industry that summer allotted a wife and mother in the 1950s. Cold suppers were acceptable. Ma was freed from ironing little cotton dresses or preparing brown bag lunches.

At lunchtime in the summer, one of us might squawk, "Ma, I need a sandwich." Her reply from the screened porch where she'd most likely be smoking a Winston and gossiping with a neighbor was, "Get it yourself!" No need to rush to the aid of an eight-year-old kid who had nothing to do all day but read comic books and blow bubbles into the wind.

We didn't think about going back to school until the inevitable trip to the barbershop for a trim, or Ma's call to, "Come here, let me check your fingernails," signaled the jig was up. Something must be happening or else why would she care what we looked like, it was summer for crying out loud.

As I stood there before that display of crayons, my ire rose as only it can when control over one's destiny is being handled by invisible forces. How dare they take my summer away by forcing me to accept that in a few short weeks schools would re-open? Damn them to hell!

Now that I'm far from those carefree days of childhood where the biggest problems I had to deal with were scabbed-over knees and a missing skate key, I'm right back to embracing summer like a child.

I study the tide charts and weather forecast then confer with my girlfriend to make sure she can come out and play. Then it's off to the beach where we merrily bob around until our fingers are prunes and no longer have the sense of touch. "Oh, we better go in, I can't feel my fingers any longer," one of us will eventually remark.

Master Plumber #9794 - Licensed Men

Sadly, we trudge out of the water morphing from two little girls at play back to two senior citizens who are well aware that seasons slip away much too fast.

But it still angers me that shareholder value equates to pushing the seasons along at an increasing pace. Before you know it retailers will be trying to sell us school supplies for the coming year before school even closes for summer.

Of course, I could just ignore the marketing strategies designed to pull dollars from consumer pockets into profit margins. Quarterly revenues must rule and reaching prescribed goals is a narrative all too familiar to anyone who has been part of a corporate structure. "Our shareholders expect value," is a favorite CEO mantra. How about, "VALUE THIS!" I quit. Oh wait I'm retired. Ignore that last bit of ranting.

Candidly speaking, I just want to play with the same carefree abandon I once enjoyed. After all, how many seasons does one get is a difficult question with no answer. That's why baby boomers have bucket lists after all.

So instead, I reject all the advertising hoopla. I'll enjoy the tides and the sun, the fresh corn and the watermelons, ice cream cones beside the harbor, and long walks with the dog past 8:30 pm because it isn't dark yet so I don't have to go inside.

In a memory I hear myself saying, "Ma, I want to stay outside. Faith is still outside. The street light isn't on yet, Maaaaa!"

She is standing at the screen door saying, "Okay, but stay near the house." My playmate and I sit on the edge of the sidewalk watching our sparklers slowly sizzle, safe in the knowledge that there is always tomorrow and summer is not over yet. Oh, the innocence of youth.

No Rain, Just 'Super Duper' Fun By Marilou Newell

The weather forecast wasn't promising as church members and volunteers prepared Main Street in Marion and the First Congregational Church for its annual 'Super Duper Fun Fair' on July 29. Call it divine intervention, but it did not begin to rain until the church bells rang out announcing it was 2:00 pm, time for the fair to close.

Between 10:00 am and 2:00 pm, the tiny village of Marion saw a steady flow of people intent on enjoying the decades-old fair. In fact, trying to find out when the fair first began proved difficult.

Susan Smith, publicist for the event and bake sale table attendant said, "Well, I've been here a long time and they've held it every year." Jean Lake, vice chairman of the lunchroom, where chicken salad and lobster rolls featured high on the menu, chuckled at the question. "I've been here a long time, and I don't know the answer," she responded.

Regardless of how long the fair has been taking place – let's call it 'decades' – the event has given families a place to go and enjoy the simple old-fashioned joys of a ring-toss or knock-down the bottles games (homemade of course), find a good summer novel, or buy a plate of homemade cookies. Or maybe it's simply the desire to participate in a hometown event that is quintessentially New England.

Whatever the driving force might have been, it drew people together and a good time was had by all.

Down in the church basement, seasoned flea-market hunters were scanning tables crammed to overflowing with bargains, while outside on the midway children squealed with delight as their tossed balls hit the mark.

Also outside was the baked goods table where Smith said, "Everyone pitches in and donates baked goods for the table.... They are great bakers ... we even have an heirloom recipe," as she pointed to a blueberry cake. Smith said that in the coming year the church would be publishing a cookbook filled with recipes, many of which are family treasures.

Smith also said proceeds from the event helped to fund the church's many outreach programs and mission work. "It goes in the general fund."

And let's not forget the volunteers that donned fancy hats for this event. There was Susan Kenny in her giant hot dog and bun-shaped head-piece apropos for the snack table she was working, and Betty Linzee whose genteel straw hat decorated in flowers had been handed down to her by a previous churchgoer who wore it every year while manning the flower and blueberry table. "I have to wear her hat," Linzee said with a soft smile.

If you were looking for a good used book, there were plenty of those as well as new books signed by their author. Bearing up in the cool air was Phyllis Washburn autographing copies of her book Good Morning Sam, a charming heart-felt story of the years she cared for a lonely swan.

In the lunchroom, Lake said that diners were enjoying the food and the live music provided by pianist Truman Tirrell and flutist Bob Sanderson.

As the church's automated music emitted such tunes as "Lazy Crazy Days of Summer" and "Michael Row Your Boat Ashore" from its bell tower, the cool fall-like breezes and dark skies were no match for the warmth generated by the Super Duper Fun Fair. And overheard were two volunteers plotting with each other, "Well, next year, let's...."

The church's work is never done.

course, but for those who have watched him go from high school intern to video whiz at ORCTV, it's no surprise that he'll be vlogging his road trip as he moves to the West Coast to try and make it there working on feature film camera crews.

"I haven't even planned all my stops," he said. "I've got some friends I want to see, but I'm just going to vlog (video blog) my way out there. I think it'll be a good document, maybe a little bit helpful to others considering the same move," said Lawrence. "No two paths are the same when it comes to film. time employee. He grew up in Rochester where he had a bit of an epiphany in sixth grade. His older brother did a video project for the high school, and Gary was impressed.

"I used to shoot videos, but something about seeing how those kids had made this high-production show made me think, 'Hey, I can do something like that,'" he said. "And I've been working towards it ever since."

He got involved with ORCTV at the suggestion of his pastor, Rev. Robert Ripley of the First Congregational Church of Rochester.

"He filmed his sermons and he'd drop them off there, and he was like, 'You should really shoot for them.' It was what I wanted to be doing, I just wanted to further my knowledge."

The experience, first as an Old Rochester student and then as an adult staff member shooting community video (and mentoring kids at his former school), was a great training ground.

"ORCTV's been great," he said. "It's been really a perfect job for where I was coming out of college. We've done a lot here, first over at the Captain Hadley house, then back into the school. Now it's like this full-fledged production studio. That whole experience was great, I couldn't be happier with where we are."

As Lawrence got more and more comfortable with his skills, he also learned an inconvenient truth: that living in Southeastern Massachusetts, surrounded by a loving family and lots of friends, was not the place for him to really thrive in his field. He knew he'd eventually have to make a move if he really wanted to reach his goals.

"Nobody in my family is really connected to the business. They're all for it, but they're not thrilled about me moving across the country," he said. "But I met a producer and formed a relationship there, and they said 'Come on out here, we'll figure out what your role is going to be,' and I had to go for it."

Lawrence has no delusions of instant grandeur, saying he plans to grind his way toward his goals.

"There's a hierarchy, you work your way up from the bottom," he said. "Just being in the camera department for feature films, that's my goal. Los Angeles really is where you have to be, just being around people that have that same passion that you do."

For Lawrence, nerves are taking a backseat to excitement.

"I don't care if it's a set of a hundred people, a big narrative film with a budget, or just a few people working on a short project," he said. "What's great about L.A. is that there are just so many different ways to express yourself."

Lawrence cites "anyone who produces original content" as influences, specifically Edgar Wright, Christopher Nolan, and legends like Steven Spielberg and Alfred Hitchcock.

Water Causes Damage at Music Hall

Marion Board of Selectmen

By Jean Perry

Water damage to multiple levels of the Marion Music Hall that happened over the past weekend is estimated at around $17,000 to $20,000, Town Administrator Paul Dawson told the Marion Board of Selectmen on August 1.

The origin of the water that caused the damage was in the second floor ladies restroom. Dawson said either a busted or loosened main supply to the toilet caused water to leak out and seep through the floor onto the main level and then basement of the building located at 164 Front Street.

The main pipe was likely broken, Dawson suspected, possibly by a person cleaning the bathroom with a mop. However, it may have just come loose, he said.

The water likely leaked throughout the weekend until Sunday when it finally activated the smoke alarm. The Fire Department responded and the water main to the Music Hall was shut off.

The Town's insurance company will likely cover the cost of the damages ranging from damaged linoleum in the bathroom to damaged wide plank pine floor boards in the reading room of the first floor, and some carpeting, along with some ceiling damage. Dehumidification of the basement is already underway.

"The number one concern is mold," said Dawson.

The Facilities Department is pricing out the repair work now. Dawson said the Town has a $1,000 insurance deductible.

In other matters, Dawson recommended that the selectmen consider looking within the current police department for a candidate to replace Police Chief Lincoln Miller who will retire at the year's end.

"I think that it might behoove the board to at least consider exploring the possibility of looking within the department itself to see if there is A: interest, and B: leadership qualities," Dawson recommended, before the board seeks to advertise for the position.

Dawson invited current command staff including sergeants and the lieutenant to consider if they might be interested in pursuing the chief of police position. The board would welcome a letter of interest and a resume and would meet one-on-one to discuss applicants' qualifications, "...And determine if [the selectmen] feel they have a satisfactory candidate or go outside and broaden the search," said Dawson.

Board of Selectmen Chairman Jody Dickerson concurred.

"I think this is a good opportunity ... to kick the tires," said Dickerson. "Let's see what we got within the department. Let's sit down with them ... and have a general conversation with them ... and see where they go." Dickerson continued, "If we don't feel comfortable, then we can look somewhere else."

Selectman Norm Hills also preferred to "move someone up" before seeking to widen the search.

Dickerson commented that Chief Miller was promoted from within 18 years ago, and so was the prior police chief.

"It makes sense," said Dawson. "There's a real benefit to having somebody who knows the town and understands the culture of the department and can provide that continuity of leadership."

At the end of the day, Dawson added, there's no commitment.

The next meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen is scheduled for August 15 at 7:00 pm in the Marion police station conference room located at 550 Mill Street.

Mattapoisett to Get Shark Tracking Buoy

Mattapoisett Marine Advisory Board

By Marilou Newell

It seemed apropos that "Shark Week" on TV should end with the announcement that Mattapoisett will be the recipient of a shark-tracking buoy.

During the July 27 meeting of the Mattapoisett Marine Advisory Board, Harbormaster Jill Simmons said it was a gift to the town.

Simmons explained that Sue McGowan, a business partner of Gilman Corporation, a manufacturer of navigation aids, is also a lifelong summer visitor. Simmons wrote in her report, "She is funding the project and made it a requirement that one (shark buoy) come to our town."

Simmons said with the USCG disestablishment of

Colonial Shutterworks

Interior/Exterior Shutters - Historic Replications - Storm/Screen Doors

Office: 508-758-9513

navigation buoy No. 2 slated for November and located off Angelica Point, the shark buoy would be placed there to serve two purposes.

Simmons wrote, "...people are used to seeing something there and they can also use it as a mark when Number Two goes." Simmons also noted that Mattapoisett is the only place in Massachusetts that had ever suffered a fatal shark attack – July 25, 1936. She said the placement of the shark buoy in this location will, "give it a clear shot of all of Buzzards Bay..." where the sharks are traveling. The buoy, Simmons said, will be placed in the coming week.

In other business, the MAB has just completed a monumental task – the writing of updated waterways rules and regulations. That project took the group nearly two years to complete, but now that all the fine print has been debated and vetted, the final draft is before the Board of Selectmen for their seal of approval.

Chairman Carlos DaSousa said, "We spent a ton of hours on it, most especially Bob Moore." Moore, who was not present, was lauded for volunteering his time and talent to editing the electronic document in preparation for submittal to the selectmen.

DaSousa said that once the selectmen approve the final version, which should take place at their first meeting in August, it will be uploaded to the Town's website and will also be available at the town clerk's office.

DaSousa said the selectmen also asked the MAB to begin writing a new waterfront management plan. He noted that during previous meetings, Town Administrator Michael Gagne had met with the board to discuss such plans, but the project had sputtered out. Now with the completion of the rules and regulation, the group could return their focus to this document.

Back in 2015, Gagne had approached the MAB about just such a plan. At that time he brought in David Janik, South Coastal Regional Coordinator for Massachusetts' Coastal Zone Management Office, a branch of the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs. During the November 2015 meeting of the MAB, Janik told the group to be "very specific" on the point of private docks and piers, a very hot topic for the town at that time.

Again in April 2015, Gagne told the Board of Selectmen that the MAB would need to coordinate with the Planning Board and SRPEDD to undertake this task. He said that SRPEDD had the personnel to assist the Town. At that time, Gagne said, "A harbor plan would allow the Town to develop their own language for Chapter 91 projects," such as private docks and piers.

There was some discussion on this night amongst MAB members as to whether or not the Town could write such policy without first seeking the State's permission to do so.

DaSousa said he would follow-up with Gagne for clarity regarding the matter and that they would invite Janik to attend a meeting in the future. DaSousa also said that next month he'd be looking for volunteers to form a sub-committee to undertake the drafting of a waterfront plan.

The next meeting of the Mattapoisett Marine Advisory Board is scheduled for August 31 at 7:00 pm in the Town Hall conference room.

Agriculture Supply Business Proposed

Rochester Conservation Commission

By Marilou Newell

At the August 1 meeting of the Rochester Conservation Commission, the commission and the public heard for the first time about plans for a new business on Kings Highway proposed by Craig Canning of Progressive Grower Inc., as the plans pertain to the wetlands. Those plans are to develop the property for an agricultural supply business. The property in question is owned by Tremont Enterprise Corporation of West Wareham.

Represented by Brian Grady of G.A.F. Engineering, Canning's plans include six 60-foot by 120-foot buildings for the storage and distribution of fertilizer and agricultural supplies.

Grady described the areas under the jurisdiction of the Conservation Commission: stormwater management conceptual plans, limits of work, and wetlands flagging.

One abutter who aired concerns about stormwater management was assured by Grady that the proposed system would not add to his basement flooding issues.

Grady said that he would be working closely with Ken Motta of Field Engineering, Rochester's consultant during plan development phases, and said that they would soon be meeting for the first time with the Planning Board.

Given that the proposed project was in the very early stages, Chairman Michael Conway asked if the applicant wished to continue the hearing for several weeks. Canning agreed, and the Notice of Intent hearing was continued until September 5.

Next stop for Canning is the August 7 Planning Board hearing that is scheduled for 7:00 pm and will be held at the Rochester Memorial School. The abutter was urged to attend that meeting.

After-the-fact Notice of Intent continuations for Decas Cranberry Corporation's unpermitted logging activities were again before the commissioners. But this time, the environmental engineer had remediation and mitigation plans buttoned up.

For property owned by the cranberry grower at Old Middleboro Road, 223 Burgess Avenue, and Walnut Plain Road, Brooke Monroe of Pinebrook Consulting presented plans for seeding and planting that pleased the commissioners.

With minor modifications that included monitoring of new plantings over two growing seasons by a qualified environmental scientist, re-planting any vegetation that fails to thrive, and completion of all work by October 2017, the three filings were conditioned.

Also receiving good news for an after-the-fact Notice of Intent filing were members of the trustees for the Hartley Beach Trust: Patricia Corwin, Norene Hartley, and Keith Cannon.

Mitigation plans for unpermitted clearing were submitted by Brian Madden of LEC Environmental.

The plans were accepted along with a request by the commission that the owners place timber posts along the no-touch zone for visual limits of work for any future landscape activities. Restoration must be completed by the fall of 2017.

Commission member John Teal spoke up at the end of those cases, saying, "I think we get too far into these mitigation areas.... Mother Nature does a good job.... Natural processes work just fine." He also said, "We should be enhancing; otherwise, just leave it alone. Let Mother Nature have a hand in what goes on rather than over-engineering."

Conservation Agent Laurell Farinon concurred, saying that was the intent from her vantage point also.

The next meeting of the Rochester Conservation Commission is scheduled for August 15 at 7:00 pm in the Rochester Town Hall meeting room.

Judging by the headline, the Marion Conservation Commission on July 26 clearly sped through each of its schedules public hearings, leaving gaps to take care of other business, shuffle through papers in silence, and conduct a bit of small talk.

First, the commission rendered a Negative Determination (no Notice of Intent Filing required) for the demolition of an old garage and new construction of a larger 30-foot by 22-foot garage for the Request for Determination of Applicability filed by Anne and Richard Lucas of 6 Allen Street.

Next, the commission approved the RDA for Elizabeth Kearns of 483 Point Road to extend her yard another 25 feet closer to the wetlands, giving it a Negative Determination. In a previous filing for a Notice of Intent, Kearns had only requested her yard for a new house construction to approach the wetlands by 35 feet. Now she asked to extend the yard another 25 feet towards the 15-foot vegetation no-touch zone. Activity will include some clearing, grading, topsoil, and lawn procurement. The commission told Kearns some sort of 'permanent-ish' barrier should be installed, such as boulders that the commission typically prefers, but Kearns will install a fence of sorts, just as a visual reminder to future property owners that no further encroachment is allowed unless they file with the commission first.

"I have no issues with what's being proposed," said commission member Shaun Walsh.

Before adjournment, the commission approved Frederick Trezise's RDA to remove and trim trees that are in contact with house, remove phragmites, and install a pre-constructed shed onto a prebuilt 18-foot by 20-foot raised gravel and wood "bed." Walsh said he was comfortable with the chosen licensed and qualified pesticide application professional to remove the phragmites, and he commented that he found no further concerns. The application for the address 22 River View Lane received a Negative Determination.

The next meeting of the Marion Conservation Commission is scheduled for August 9 at 7:00 pm at the Marion Music Hall at 164 Front Street.

"Behind the Bulldog"

By ORR Principal Michael Devoll

Coming to ORRHS this fall ... The Bulldog Block. Taking a nod from the success of the flex period at our junior high school, we will be incorporating a fixed period of time to provide interventions, supports, enrichments and extensions for all students during the regular school day. Every day. The Bulldog Block will land in the middle of our day starting at 10:17 am and ending at 10:52 am. While most view the 35-minute period as time for students to receive academic support, this is also an opportunity for enrichments and extensions for students that didn't previously exist. Town community help? Do you have a skill or an interest that would benefit a group of students? Prior to the Bulldog Block, we had a rotating schedule, and therefore we couldn't guarantee a consistent period of time for meetings with students. Now we have time available. The same time, every day. Do you have insight into potential career opportunities for students? Do you have a connection to a particular college or have an interest in helping students find the right post-high school path? We can create a consistent schedule for you. Weekly, biweekly, or monthly ... all hands on deck. Our community members have so much to offer our student body, and we now have the chance to consistently capture an audience of interested students. 10:17-10:52 ... every day. Send me

133rd Summer Season at St. Philip's

St. Philip's Episcopal Church, next to the Town Beach in Mattapoisett, continues their long tradition of visiting clergy from Massachusetts and beyond.

Services using the 1928 Book of Common Prayer are conducted at 8:00 am and 10:00 am each Sunday through Labor Day weekend.

The Rev. Robert Malm, Rector, Grace Church, Alexandria, VA officiates on Sunday, August 6.

Come visit our historic chapel by the sea in Mattapoisett. All are welcome.

Arbor and Hiroshima Day Ceremony

A ceremony will be held at 11:00 am on August 6 at the Dexter Lane Ballfield (55 Dexter Lane, Rochester) to celebrate the gift and planting of a ginkgo tree sapling from a tree that survived the bombing of Hiroshima, Japan. August 6 is the 72nd anniversary of the bombing.

Rochester is a Tree City USA designated by the National Arbor Day Foundation. We are pleased to be able to plant a piece of living history in our town's own historic district. Rochester will join such esteemed places to have been gifted such a tree from Green Legacy Hiroshima as the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation in Santa Barbara, California and the international committee of the Red Cross in Geneva, Switzerland.

Please join us for the dedication of this special tree. All are welcome to attend.

RLT Full Moon Kayak Event

The Rochester Land Trust will be holding what will be its third annual Full Moon Kayak Paddle on Sunday, August 6 at Mary's Pond. Plan to be there for a 7:30 pm launch with sunset at 7:57 and the moon rising at 7:18. Put in will be at the State car top launch on Perry's Lane off Mary's Pond Road, with parking there.

Participants must bring their own kayak or canoe and life vests must be worn. Bug spray and a flashlight are also suggested. As we all know, there is no life guard on duty, so you will be boating at your own risk. The pond is stocked for fishing with a valid license. All ages are welcome. This year, we are asking for a voluntary admission price. There will be a box (or two) there to accept donations for a fellow, local nonprofit, "It's All About the Animals" cat shelter on Rt. 105. They need canned cat or kitten food, Lysol spray, used towels and scoopable, clumpable kitty litter.

So, come join us on a beautiful summer's evening, to watch the full moon rise over Mary's Pond. Another way to enjoy and appreciate this beautiful town we love.

Minecraft Madness with Jungle Jim

When Jim Manning contemplated climbing inside a 6foot balloon for the first time, he thought it was a joke. "I thought I was being had," says Manning. He was attending a conference for balloon twisters in Chicago, and another "twister" was needed for a giant experiment. The experience was a great one. "It was exhilarating," explains Manning. "I had to overcome my fears and was glad I did." The 6foot balloon has now become the big finale of his performance. Manning will be bringing his 6-foot balloon and the rest of his act to the Joseph H. Plumb Memorial Library this August. Manning, or as he is known by his moniker "Jungle Jim," will be performing in Rochester at the Fellowship Hall of the Rochester Congregational Church, 11 Constitution Way, on Monday, August 14 at 4:30 pm. Jungle Jim's shows are a bit different, as he combines magic, comedy and balloons to present a program that encourages literacy and reinforces the fun of being at the library. For this year's program, Jungle Jim is using the video game "Minecraft" as his inspiration for "Build a Better World," the Summer Reading Program theme. This performance is recommended for children ages 3-10. Registration is required. Register at www.plumblibrary.com on the Events Calendar. This program is supported in part by a grant from the Rochester Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Salve Regina University's Alumni Achievement Award

Helen Shea McGowan-Gardner of Mattapoisett, MA, a pioneer in the early research on AIDS and the development of critical care for AIDS patients at the local, regional and national levels, was named an Alumni Achievement Award winner during Salve Regina University's recent reunion weekend celebration. She is a 1962 Salve Regina graduate.

As a certified infection control practitioner and director of infection control, McGowan-Gardner embodies many tenets of the corporal works of Mercy, evidenced by the fact that she was the first nursing professional to make a home visit to an AIDS patient in southeastern Massachusetts. This was at a time when AIDS was a frightening new disease.

She has presented and published research findings pertaining to nursing care for those afflicted with the illness and also conducted research with nursing faculty at the University of Massachusetts, presenting their findings, titled "AIDS and Nursing Care:

A Collaborative Research Model," at the New England Organization for Nursing. In addition, she served as president, past president, secretary and member of the board of directors of the Association Professionals of Infection Control, New England.

McGowan-Gardner has distinguished herself through significant contributions to the Salve community, serving as an active member on the Nursing Alumni Council for several years, participating in fundraising Phonathons and other donor solicitation efforts, and volunteering as a class representative for the Class of 1962. She continues to serve on reunion planning committees.

McGowan-Gardner looks back at her years at Salve and is quick to note three important points regarding her education. "First, attitudes are communicated – and significantly affect nursing care. Second, care is holistic, and includes the body, mind and spirit. And finally, learning is continuous and interrelated."

She cites her greatest source of pride has been in raising her four children: Paul, Timothy, Mary Kate and Deirdre.

The Sippican Hotel During the Golden Age of Marion

During the late 1800s and early 1900s, the Sippican Hotel was a cornerstone of what became known as the Golden Age of Marion, Massachusetts. At its peak, the Sippican Hotel represented the finest elegance and style in the time of high culture in Marion's history. David K. Pierce, Vice President of the Sippican Historical Society, will give a lecture about the Sippican Hotel on Thursday, August 3 at the New Bedford Whaling Museum beginning at 7:00 pm. A reception precedes the lecture at 6:00 pm. This event is free and open to the public. Register by calling 508-997-0046 or go to www.whalingmuseum.org.

Marion, Massachusetts, once known as Sippican after the area's original Native American inhabitants, rose in social and cultural prominence in the late 19th century as a destination resort community. The Golden Age of Marion began after the Civil War, when it evolved from a sleepy seaside village to a summer gathering place for artists, writers, actors, musicians, and other intellectual leaders and celebrities such as President Grover Cleveland, Henry James, and artist Charles Dana Gibson, among many others.

Pierce's lecture, "The Sippican Hotel During the Golden Age of Marion," is associated with a current exhibition at the Whaling Museum titled "Celebrating Sippican: Marion in the Golden Age."

Mattapoisett Council on Aging

Everyone either knows someone over 60, cares for someone over 60, or will be someone over 60! The Council on Aging (COA) is conducting a survey to better understand the needs of the community. The goal of the survey is to get a better picture of who the council serves (and will serve) and what programs and services interest people in town.

The COA serves full-time, part-time and summer residents and their families in many ways – educational, fitness, social (including activities, games, trips and more); and resources and services (including, but not limited to, friendly visitors, fuel assistance, Medicare & supplemental insurance, legal, footcare, durable medical equipment). With over 35% of Mattapoisett being over age 60, that number will continue to grow. As the population grows, the COA also needs to grow.

the First World War failed in all respects and in many ways sowed the seeds for another World War in only 20 short years. During these years, Lenin and Stalin built the Soviet Communist State. The Italians, humiliated by their losses to Germany during the war, eagerly followed Benito Mussolini in building a Fascist State based on exaggerated nationalism. The German people, broken by defeat in the war and further punished by the allied Powers with heavy reparation payments, were ready to follow a charismatic Adolf Hitler who talked of a master race and a thousand year Reich. In the Orient, the Japanese military faction gained control of the government and in 1936 Japanese forces began invading the Chinese mainland. The League of Nations during the inter-war years was merely a sounding board with no means to enforce its declarations. The League was also minus the United States, which had played such an important role in the defeat of Germany.

This series of six lectures will attempt to analyze the events of the period and the reactions of England, France, and the United States as the structure set up by the Paris Peace Conference and Treaty of Versailles crumbled, sending Europe and the world into another war. The lectures will be held on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm at the Mattapoisett Free Public Library, beginning on August 15 and ending September 19. OBITUARIES

Donald Dickerson, 92, of Marion died July 24, 2017 peacefully at Hathaway Manor Extended Care Facility.

He was the husband of the late Helen N. (Norberg) Dickerson with whom he shared 56 years of marriage.

Born in Cranston, RI, he was raised in Warren, RI before moving to Marion in 1954.

Mr. Dickerson was formerly employed by Beech Nut Baby Foods, as a police officer for the Town of Marion before working 26 years for the U.S. Postal Service in Marion until his retirement.

He was a member of the First Congregational Church in Marion where he served as a deacon for over 50 years.

Mr. Dickerson was a decorated World War II veteran serving in the U.S. Army. He was an infantry scout serving in the 43rd infantry, 169th Division also known as the "Winged Division." He spent 33 months in the service with 17 of those months in actual combat in the Pacific Campaign, most notably New Guinea, the invasion of the Philippines and occupancy of Japan. As a result of his valiant effort and contribution to his country while serving as an infantry scout he was awarded with numerous decorations and citations, including; Combat Infantryman Badge, 2 Bronze Stars, The Presidential Unit Citation, Distinguished Unit Badge, Asiatic Pacific Campaign Ribbon, Philippine Liberation Ribbon, Victory Medal, Sharpshooter and Marksman recognition among other acknowledgments. Despite all that he had witnessed, he seldom spoke of his time served and when asked he would simply respond "war is the most terrible thing created by man and that somethings in life are meant not to be shared."

He was a member and the longest serving member of the Washington Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Warren, RI for nearly 70 years and a lifetime member of the Benjamin D. Cushing VFW Post 2425 in Marion for over 50 years. Mr. Dickerson served on the Board of Directors for the Massachusetts Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. He served as Athletic Director in the Town of Marion and was a huge advocate for downplaying parental over-involvement and instead allow all kids to play, learn and above all enjoy. Mr. Dickerson coached many Little League and Babe Ruth teams in Marion and did so even when he did not have any children of his own participating. He played competitive hardball himself, well into his 40's.

Survivors include his daughter, Bette-Jean Black and her husband Allen of Wakefield, RI; his 2 sons, Jeffrey Dickerson and Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, both of Marion; 4 grandchildren; and 3 great-grandchildren.

He was the father of the late Eric Dickerson.

His Graveside Service was held on Saturday in Evergreen Cemetery. Visiting hours were omitted. Arrangements are with the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home For Funerals, 50 County Rd. (Rt. 6) Mattapoisett. In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in memory of Eric Dickerson, 220 North Main St., Suite 104, Natick, MA 01760. For online guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Carol A. (Burke) Connolly, 78, of Mattapoisett died July 23, 2017 at Sippican Health Care Center after a long illness.

She was the wife of Paul J. Connolly.

Born in Arlington, MA, the daughter of the late Wallace H. and Helen (McQuiggan) Burke, she was raised in Belmont and lived in Mattapoisett for over 35 years. She wintered in Venice, FL.

She was formerly employed as a physical therapist for many years until retirement.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Sean Connolly of Wareham; a daughter, Robin Connolly and her husband Kevin Kearns of Natick, MA; a sister, Patricia Baker of Scituate, MA; and a niece, Lauren Baker of Scituate; a sister-in-law, Elizabeth Connolly of Waltham; a niece, Sharon Connolly and 3 nephews, Bill Connolly, John Connolly and James Connolly.

She was the grandmother of the late Adam C. Connolly.

Private arrangements are with the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home For Funerals, 50 County Rd. (Rt. 6) Mattapoisett. For online condolence book, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Edwin Thomas "Ted" Harrison, 87, of Marion, formerly of Plymouth, and originally of Roehampton, London, UK passed away on Tuesday July 25, 2017.

Born in 1930 in the UK, Ted served in the RAF in the late 1940's. He immigrated to the US in 1968. Ted enjoyed organic gardening and photography in his younger years. A mechanical draftsman by trade, he also mastered and taught computer aided design. He was happiest when teaching young adults, at ITT Technical Institute in Boston (in the early 1970's); and later as an instructor to inmates in the Georgia and Massachusetts State Prison Systems. He enjoyed deeply contemplating the meaning of life, Buddhism, and the teachings of Jesus.

Ted was the caring husband to Diane, loving father to Nicola "Nicky" Moulton of Tallahassee, FL and Sarah Harrison Smongeski and her husband Joseph G. of Shrewsbury, MA, and grandfather to Jeremy Moulton of Havana, FL and his wife Rachael and daughter Lillian; Adam Moulton of West Palm Beach, FL and his wife Marri, and his son Khani Moulton of Tallahassee; and Edward Joseph "Teddy" Smongeski of Cambridge, MA and his partner Mary Rocheleau.

On Monday July 24th 2017, Matthew Craig Sherman, 39, departed this world for the next. Matthew was a much loved son, brother, and friend.

Matthew grew up in Rochester, MA and was an excellent student and talented athlete, going on to play football at UNH, where he studied groundwater hydrology.

He later pursued building as a vocation and was truly a craftsman, who tried to balance being a successful contractor with "being able to sleep at night", as he often said. Selflessness and kindness were integral parts of who Matthew was; he was guided by a strong sense of what was right and an ever-deepening sensitivity and empathy for others. He quietly gave monthly to St. Jude's and UNICEF, bought for several under-privileged families at Christmas through his church's giving tree, and always over-tipped. His generosity showed itself at holidays and birthdays as well, displaying a child-like glee in giving his loved ones the perfect gift. He was a voracious reader, ardent animal lover, and overall renaissance man, whose interests and talents were widespread. Matt crafted furniture by hand, practiced yoga and jujitsu, and gave excellent advice. He was more introspective than most; spiritual and thoughtful. Matthew was part of a tight-knit family, who loved him deeply, and he in kind.

He leaves behind his parents, Craig and Christina Sherman of Wareham, his brother Adam Sherman of Wareham, his sister Ali Sherman Donovan of Rochester, and brother-in-law Timothy Donovan of Rochester, as well as a large extended family, and many friends.

His Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 am on Wednesday, August 2, 2017 in St. Patrick's Church, 82 High St., Wareham. Burial will follow at St. Patrick's Cemetery.

Visiting hours were held on Tuesday, August 1st at Chapman, Cole & Gleason Funeral Home, 2599 Cranberry Hwy., Wareham.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Spondylitis Association of America, 16360 Roscoe Blvd #100 Van Nuys, CA 91406.

Michael R. Horsley, 62, of Mattapoisett passed away Monday, July 24, 2017 in St. Luke's Hospital after a long, courageous battle with cancer. He was the husband of the late Linda Nunes.

Born in Fairhaven, son of Lillian (Fleurent) Horsley and the late Robert E. Horsley of Fairhaven he was a lifelong area resident.

Mike was a tuna fisherman but took pleasure in all types of shellfishing. He was also a skilled woodworker and enjoyed gardening.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by a loving and devoted son, Corey Horsley and his wife Alexis of Mattapoisett; a sister, Susan Morris and her husband Daniel; a brother, Steven Horsley and his wife Wendy all of Fairhaven; and several nieces and nephews.

His private services are under the care of Rock Funeral Home, 1285 Ashley Blvd. New Bedford. www.rock-funeral-home.com for online tribute.

card. Customers are able to view their bills and make a one-time payment without registering, or, by registering, they can enjoy 24/7 access to payment history and bills. By registering, customers will also be able to pay anytime, anywhere with a mobile optimized experience, either online, on their mobile device or by text message. Other enhanced features include the ability to schedule a payment, either for the same day or a future date, or to establish an automatic payment schedule.

Paying electronically is faster and more convenient than paying with personal online banking. Paying with personal online banking results in an actual bank check mailed to the Town. Many times incorrect or missing information causes delays in payment posting. EFT/ACH payments are received and cleared faster than checks issued by banks. The Collector's Office uploads electronic payment files, therefore, improving the accuracy and timeliness of payment posting for customers. In addition to receiving email reminders when a payment is due and a confirmation email after making a payment, customers can sign up for courtesy email reminders.

Advantages of e-Billing and Payment:

- Paying online is faster than mailing a check
- Bills and payment history are kept securely in one place
- No worries about a bill or check getting lost in the mail
- Paying online saves stamps, envelopes and gas
- Pay your bill from wherever you have Internet access
- Late fees can be avoided with scheduled or automatic payments

Church of the Good Shepherd with "The Fair Way Golf" on the memo line. Sponsored by the Church of the Good Shepherd in Wareham, all proceeds benefit the homeless, hungry, and other outreach ministries for people in need of compassion and understanding.

"This golf tournament raises much needed funds to support our outreach ministries at Church of the Good Shepherd," said The Rev. Dan Bernier, pastor of Church of the Good Shepherd. "Throughout the year, volunteers help feed 126 families per month at Good Shepherd's Food Panty, which started in January 2007. Shepherd's Table, which serves hot meals every Thursday night, has served over 145,000 meals to individuals and families in need since it began in April 2000. During the months

TriTOWN HAPPENINGS

The Marion Natural History Museum thanks Bob Field and Freeman Bauer for the awesome trip out to Bob's upwellers to learn about oysters as filter feeders in our bay. We also thank Jill Simmons, Mattapoissett Harbormaster and Coast Guard Reserve, for allowing us to access Ned's Point Lighthouse and great last day boat trip to view the various locations we visited last week from the water. Finally, thanks to the Mattapoissett Rec Department for co-sponsoring the program. We had a wonderful week looking for blue crabs and learning about marine organisms as indicators of the health of our bay. We also constructed our own watershed models and netted many animals for close-up inspection. Photos courtesy Elizabeth Liedhold of January through March, the Church of the Good Shepherd joins with other churches in the area to provide a safe, warm place to sleep for the homeless. This year, 59 unduplicated individuals took shelter from the cold winter temperatures at the Nights of Hospitality for a total of 1,016 shelter night stays with an average of 12.2 people per night. We could not continue to provide these critical programs and services without the support of the community."

All are welcome to participate in this year's Fair Way Golf Tournament at Little Harbor Country Club. This 18-hole Executive Golf Course is challenging enough for the accomplished golfer, yet fun for the novice. The course is a Par 56 with holes ranging in distance from 100 to 291 and a total yardage of 3038. But don't let these numbers fool you; you will need every club in your bag.

"All levels of golfers can enjoy a fun day of golf with the added bonus of supporting your neighbors in need who are homeless, hungry or just need a helping hand at the holidays and throughout the year," said Natecia Alfonso, Golf Tournament Chair. She added "if you've never entered a golf tournament before, this is a good place to start. You just need a set of clubs for each golfer and the desire to do your best to have a great time." For more information, contact Natecia Alfonso at 774-260-1924 or email natecia17@gmail.com.

MOVIE REVIEW

Big Drama

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

Colossal. Starring Anne Hathaway and Jason Sudeikis. Directed by Nacho Vigalondo. Running time: 109 minutes. MPAA rating: R. Now on home video.

Colossal mashes up two such madly divergent genres — the kaiju, or giant monster, movie and the sincere romcom — that it shouldn't work as demonically well as it does. Partly its success owes to the willingness of its writer/director, Nacho Vigalondo, to make the characters stubbornly imperfect and idiosyncratic. The movie's human drama has a slow, steady launch, but by the time it enters the realm of science fiction, or fantasy, or horror, or whatever you choose to call it, we are invested in these people, and we respond to the metaphors more organically and freely than we might otherwise.

Vigalondo, a sci-fi/horror man from the beginning, gives us a tenuous explanation for the premise. Gloria (Anne Hathaway), a drunken wreck of a woman, somehow inadvertently summons and controls the movements of a giant monster in South Korea. She lifts her arms, it lifts its arms. This apparently only happens when she enters a park in her hometown at 8:05 in the morning. These are the rules we need to accept in order to enter into the imaginative contract; once we sign it, Vigalondo honors our desire for an unpredictable good time. The movie eventually settles into stark drama, evoking such real-world monsters as violent jealousy and self-hatred lashing outward at friends and strangers.

For a while, Colossal is rumpled good company. Gloria, played by Hathaway as a slightly more affable gloss on her human wreckage from Rachel Getting Married, is booted from the New York apartment she shares with her boyfriend Tim (Dan Stevens). Tim is tired of dealing with Gloria through the haze of alcohol or post-alcohol. Dejected, she returns to her late parents' empty house in Mainland and squats there. She encounters a childhood friend, Oscar (Jason Sudeikis), now a bartender at the place formerly owned by his late dad. He offers Gloria a job; she accepts. She hangs out at the bar after hours, mumbling late-night talk with barflies like Garth (Tim Blake Nelson), a closet cokehead, and Joel (Austin Stowell), who has a crush on her. A good portion of the movie explores what happens to orphans in their thirties, what they make of themselves (Gloria once had a writing gig in New York but blew it).

But then the monster rises in South Korea, causing chaos and sometimes death (and then, later, a kind of fascination). Gloria recognizes her connection to the creature, and partly the movie is a joke on self-absorbed people who feel their actions are more impactful and reverberant than they are. But it's also a vindication: Gloria really is causing havoc, both here in Mainland and abroad in South Korea. As I say, the origin of all this is explained piecemeal, eventually taking in Oscar, the movie's acidic take on Nice Guys. Hathaway's performance is terrific, but terrific in a known-quantity way — we've seen her go here before — whereas Jason Sudeikis weighs in with finely shaded work that crosses over, from time to time, into pathos and even threat. I never expected to find this amiable funnyman frightening, but the movie is full of surprises.

Because Colossal follows the emotions of its characters rather than an airtight plot, it's impossible to pin down; we never know where it's going, and it will not please literal-minded viewers who want to hear the click of a logical explanation. Gloria's life swamps everyone else's with drama and problems; she's a bit of a monster herself, stomping through the skyscrapers of other people's lives. (At times I was reminded of a Julie Doucet self-portrait of her as a giant, heavily menstruating all over a terrified city.) The movie doesn't linger on the South Korean kaiju scenes — they're mostly seen in TV clips or on the internet. It all resolves in a climax of tragic, hard-won triumph. I don't know what genre Colossal finally lands in; like Being John Malkovich, it's so bent it makes its own shelf to sit on.

We are also looking for any/all Veterans and non-veterans alike to volunteer to help create the display table and to man the tables a couple of hours at a time during the event. There will be 24-hour security at the Moving Wall for the entire duration of the event. Each town that abuts Wareham was invited to participate in the memorabilia exhibit. If you have items to loan, can help create the display or if you can man the tables and answer questions, it would be very much appreciated. Please contact Angela M. SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A turn in a relationship upsets the amorous Arian, who is puzzled by Cupid's romantic antics. Be patient and considerate. The confusion soon will sort itself out.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's a good time for travel-loving Taureans to take off for fun-filled jaunts to new places. And don't be surprised if Cupid tags along for what could be a very eventful trip.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You appear to be of two minds about continuing a relationship that seems to be riding roughshod over your emotions. A frank talk could help you decide one way or the other.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Stepping back from a relationship problem provides a fresh perspective on how to deal with it. Meanwhile, watch your words. Something said in anger now could backfire later.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A changing situation makes the Big Cat uneasy. But hold on until things settle down around the 5th.

Meanwhile, continue your good work on that still-unfinished project.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A decided improvement in a workplace situation results in an unexpected, but very welcome, added benefit for everyone. Personal relationships also improve.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Money matters remain a bit unsettled but soon will ease into the kind of stability you appreciate. Meanwhile, an expanding social life offers a chance to make new friends.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Use an unexpected roadblock in your monetary dealings to reassess your financial plans and make changes, if necessary. It soon will be smooth sailing again.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Aspects of love are strong for both single and paired Sagittarians. Professional dealings also thrive under the Sag's clever handling of difficult situations.

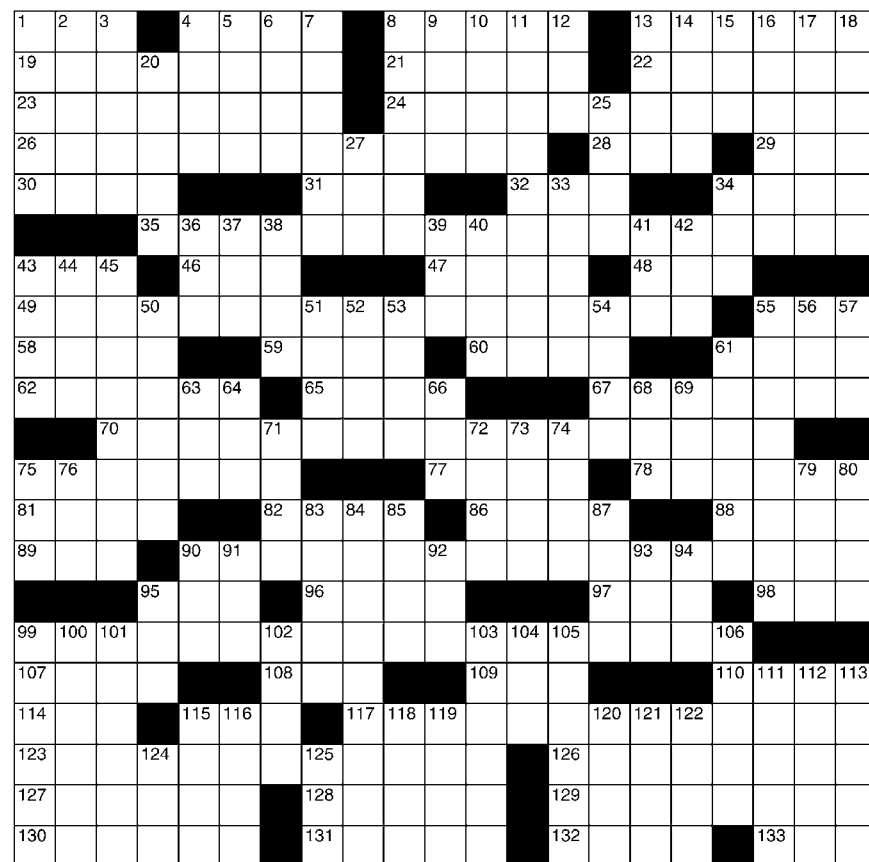

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Set a realistic goal and follow it through to completion. Remember: You're more likely to impress the right people with one well-done job than with lots of jobs left undone.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You like to plan ahead. That's fine. But be prepared to make some changes because of an unsettled period that influences your aspects through the 5th.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A brief phase of instability affects your usual work cycle. Use the time to catch up on chores around the house or office. Things settle down soon after the 5th.

BORN THIS WEEK: You love being the center of attention and probably would be a big success in show business.

successful landscape painting: design, value, color and brushwork. Students will learn how to have a strategy to capture the scene before them with a simplified design and correct color relationships.

Each day, Eli will demonstrate the quick study and how to simplify value patterns to achieve unity and impact. She will introduce an innovative method of color mixing using a simple, four-value approach. Students will learn to see both color and value as a unit, identify them and quickly mix the desired color. With this approach, it's easy to establish a pattern of light informed by the direction of the sun and to achieve unity and impact. In case of inclement weather, students will have the opportunity to use reference materials. How to translate photos into useful information for paintings will be discussed. Each day, Eli will demonstrate the quick study before students paint.

The workshop may be taken as either a single-day class or as a two-day class. Tuition for a single-day class is $115 for MAC members and $125 for non-members. Tuition for taking the workshop as a 2-day class is $220 for members and $230 for non-members. Materials to be provided by students; supplies list available upon request. For more information on the instructor, visit <http://elicedrone.com/>. For more information on the workshop, call MAC at 508-748-1266 or visit <http://www.marionartcenter.org/about/register/>.

Be a Friend. Change a Life

The Friendly Visitor Program is sponsored by the Mattapoisett Senior Center to provide companionship and support to isolated seniors who express feelings of loneliness and isolation. Through weekly home visits, volunteers develop meaningful, long-term relationships with seniors who appreciate the company and look forward to the visits. Many seniors have fascinating life stories to share. And often volunteers discover they receive as much as they give. The impact is powerful.

community of Woods Hole on Cape Cod. If you love cycling and want to protect clean water in our community, then sign up for the 11th annual Buzzards Bay Watershed Ride on Sunday, October 1 by visiting savebuzzardsbay.org/ride.

The Buzzards Bay Watershed Ride is a fun community event that supports a great cause: clean water in Buzzards Bay. More than 150 cyclists participate in the Watershed Ride each year, pedaling across the beautiful Buzzards Bay region to raise funds for clean water.

Riders can sign up for 35- and 75-mile routes as well as a 100-mile "century ride" that circles the entirety of Buzzards Bay starting from the dramatic breakwater at Sakonnet Point, RI. All three routes join together to end with a lively finish line party in the heart of Woods Hole Village featuring dinner, beer and wine, live music, awards and free massages.

"I've really enjoyed the event all three times and will definitely plan to come back again," said Jeff Gonsalves of Dartmouth, who participated in the 100-mile century ride from Sakonnet Point to Woods Hole last year. "The route is fantastic, the rest stops are well placed and well stocked, and volunteers provide great support to all the riders."

Whether you're an avid cyclist or a more casual rider, you'll enjoy the Ride's gorgeous scenery through coastal villages, farmland, working waterfront and colorful cranberry bogs. Many cyclists form teams with their friends, family and coworkers, sporting flashy uniforms and colorful names like "The Patch Pedalers," "Shore Acres Scallywags," "Team Girl Power," and "The Speeding Turtles."

Cyclists ages 12 and over are welcome. Riders are fully supported along the course with water and snack stations, clear route markings, a hearty food truck lunch at Eastover Farm in Rochester, helpful volunteers, and on-the-road bike repair technicians. Prizes go to the riders and teams that raise the most money as well as the winners in categories including Best Team Outfit and Biggest Team.

Each rider raises a minimum of $300, but many participants set larger fundraising goals. All funds go

Safe Storage and Disposal of Medications and Syringes

Many local police departments offer 24/7 prescription medication drop-boxes for the safe disposal of unused or expired medications. Medications that can be disposed of in the drop-boxes include prescription ointments, prescription medications, medication patches, and samples, as well as over the counter medications, vitamins and pet medications. Lotions, liquids, and non-prescription ointments are not permitted. For your privacy, please remember to remove all personal identification before placing items in the drop-box. In Mattapoisett, the medication drop-box is in the lobby of the Police Station, located at 64 County Road (Route 6).

For the safe disposal of needles and syringes, sharps containers are available free of charge from the Mattapoisett Police Station and the Public Health Nurse's office. Used sharps containers may be returned to the Public Health Nurse's office for safe and proper disposal of these items.

The safe and proper storage and disposal of all medications, needles, and syringes helps to prevent accidents or misuse. These items should always be stored in a secure location, out of sight and out of reach of children. To assist you with safe storage in the home, lock-boxes can be purchased at your local pharmacy or retail store such as CVS, Walgreens, or Rite Aid.

For more information, please contact the Mattapoisett Police Department at 508-758-4141 (Non-Emergency), or the Public Health Nurse at 508-758-4118.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

My dog itches almost consistently in the summer and fall and loses hair over his back near his tail. A friend said it could be caused by fleas, but I rarely find more than one flea at a time. Any thoughts?

Your friend may be right. Many dogs and cats are allergic to flea saliva. All of the changes in your dog's skin may be caused by 1 flea bite per week. Cats with flea allergy dermatitis tend to get small scabs over their body. Treatment involves strict flea control in your home as well as on your pet. Talk to your veterinarian about Advantage, Frontline and Seresto.

A POWERFUL PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so I can attain my goals, you who give me the divine gifts to forgive and forget all evil against me, in this short prayer, to thank you for all things and confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory, thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor.
